

Community Coordination for Safety in Relationships

Vision Statement

We see ongoing committed professional partnerships as a means to ending relationship violence and sustaining individual, family and community health.

We see the community free from violence and abuse; where men, women, and children; individuals and families are safe and respected.